'Y' Starts Emergency Campaign

The Torrance YMCA has launched an emergency "Save the Y" Drive in order to collect additional funds needed to continue YMCA services in Torrance. To kick off the fund, Jack's Restaurant at 21162 So. Western ave., gave all food proceeds to the YMCA during their grand opening day this week. Jack Dabbs, owner of the new business, stated that he could find no better way to celebrate the opening of his cafe than to help keep the YMCA in operation. More than $200 was given to the local youth organization by the restaurant. Ben Smith, Board Chairman for the YMCA, accepted the gift, and expressed the hope that other firms and individuals would aid the YMCA in raising a desperately needed $2091 in order to continue full operation of YMCA clubs, camps, leagues, counseling services, and offering a roof to many adult groups and classes in the community. During the YMCA Day at the restaurant, more than 200 YMCA guests tried to guess the score of the Dodger game that evening. Publisher William Zappas of the Torrance Press made the winning guess, with the correct score, and won tickets to a future Dodger double-header.

Telephone Bout Won by Woman

Telephone service was ordered restored to a Torrance woman who was disconnected last July following a sheriff's raid on her home. The Public Utilities Commission instructed the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company to restore service to Elsie Larson, of 20848 Denker Ave., following a hearing. The phone was disconnected on request of the Sheriff's Office, which had raided the address July 17, and arrested another woman, on bookmaking charges. Mrs. Larson testified that she did not know the woman who had been using her phone, and requested that the service be restored. Testimony disclosed that neither Mrs. Larson, nor her brother, Warren Thompson, who also lived at that address, used the phone for bookmaking activities, the Commission ruled. The Commission, in making its order, also found that the telephone company exercised due care and acted on reasonable cause in refusing restoration of service until this order was entered.
